PROFILE

I am a photojournalist involved in environmental and social issues. The images I capture aim at describing critical conditions of local territories and their interaction with communities who live in a tight relationship. I explore how territories are impacted by human activities, affecting environments and health. My works have been featured by The Wall Street Journal, CNN, Newsweek, The Guardian, Der Spiegel, British Journal of Photography, L'OBS, 6Mois, Bloomberg, Geographical, De Volkskrant, Woz, IRPI Media, Internazionale, FQ Millennium, National Geographic and many others.
